Copenhagen, April 2.

TH E two last Posts arriv'd from Norway, bring no other News, than that all is quiet upon the Frontiers of that Kingdom. Two of our Frigates, which have cruiz'd for eight Days in the Height of Bornholm; discover'd at a Distance two of the Enemy's Frigates, but they immediately made off to their own Coast. M. de Reventlau, who sail'd a Week ago with the Frigate Phoenix for Lubeck, to convoy back a Ship of that City, laden with Sails, and other Necessaries for our Fleet, return'd last Thursday, to the great Satisfaction of our Admiralty. We press Seamen with great Rigour, to put on board the King's Ships, and our Fleet will soon be ready to Sail, but in Case of Necessity, eight Men of War are already in a Condition to put to Sea. The Captain Vaudrof is arriv'd this Day with two Ships, laden with what fell to the King's Share at the Partition of the City of Wismar. This Day the Præm of a new sort of Fabrick, was launch'd in the King's Presence; which succeeded to the Satisfaction of his Majesty and the Admiralty. This Præm is of a prodigious Length, and carries 16 Cannon of 36 Pound Ball, and 16 of 18 Pound Ball.

Copenhagen, April 5. We have no News from the North Sea by reason of the contrary Winds, nor from the Baltick, by reason that our Cruizers are not yet return'd. We endeavour to prevent the Enemy's being at Sea before us, to which purpose we work with all possible Diligence to finish the Equipment of the Fleet. The King is gone from hence this Day for Roschild and Wordingburg, where he will make a Review of some Regiments of Horse. Last Week the Czar's Ambassador took, with great Solemnity, in the Russian Church, the Oath appointed by the Czar, acknowledging Peter Petrowits pre-emptive Heir to the Crown: And in the Evening he gave a magnificent Ball at his House.

London, April 9.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Holland, and a Mail from France.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated April 3.

Naples, March 22. An English Ship arriv'd here from Barcelona, from whence he sail'd with Impediment, to avoid being constrain'd to unload his Goods there, as 15 others of that Nation had been, and seiz'd, to serve for Transporting the Spanish Troops; and two English Captains who made Resistance, were imprison'd. 'Tis added, that the British Minister residing at Madrid made Complaint of it to Cardinal Alberoni, but without Success. From the Amst. Courants, dated April 2. and 16.

Vienna, April 2. The Russian Resident, Wei-Hawaki, having obtained Audience of the Emperor, notified to him the Alteration made by the Czar in the Succession to the Crown of Russia. He will also give in a printed Manifesto of the same. We have Advice from Constantinople and Belgrade, that the Turkish Plenipotentiaries for the Treaty of Peace, are arriv'd at Sophia, but nevertheless the Ottomans seem to insist by the Fortune of another Campaign, that they will at least a great Sum of Money, and that they may appear with a powerful Army in the Field, and march forthwith into Moldavia and Valachia, in order to make a Diversion on the Side of Transylvania. The Report continues, that Prince Eugene of Savoy will, upon the 15th of April, go to Belgrade; but whether he will open upon the Campaign, or come back first, to give the Emperor in Account of the State of things, is not known. In the mean time, the Reports of the Success which are furnish'd from the Field, are order'd to march.

The Pope's Nuncio has lately been receiv'd, and has Audience of the Emperor; but it is not known, that he means to come in a Coach with two Horses only, and with but two Gentlemen. But 'tis said that things are in so good a State towards an Accommodation between our Court and that of Rome, that that Minister will in a short time appear in publick with his usual Equipage.

Vienna, April 2. General Steinville has sent Advice to our Court, that the Kan of the Tartars with his People were upon the March towards our Frontiers; whereupon a second Order is sent to our Troops to march the 15th Instant, notwithstanding the former Order, which allow'd them eight Days more. And the Baggage of the Generals being also sent away, 'tis thence concluded that the Army will assemble by the Middle of May between Nizza and Widin. In the mean time the Turkish Common People are outrageous for Peace, and seem ready for an Insurrection against the Sultan, if he does not make it; which oblig'd him to send away in Haste an Effendi to the two other Ministers that are at Nizza, with Orders to begin the Treaty with our Plenipotentiaries without Delay. The said Effendi has therefore by an Express desir'd M. Dalman to repair to the Place of Treaty. The Instructions for Count Virmond to assist in this Treaty, are deliver'd to him, but 'tis observ'd, that these Instructions are not from the Emperor himself, as are also those of M. Dalman, but from Prince Eugene, as President of the Council of War. 'Tis pretended to be known, that the Turks seek only to obtain a Cessation of Arms for some Months, but that is what will be roundly denied them.

P. S. We have Letters from Sophia of the 8th, 12th, and 13th of March, from good Hands, which say, that the Porte, notwithstanding all the Endeavours and Expences of the Court of Madrid, are extremely desirous of a Peace. And 'tis generally understood, we shall take Advantage of that Disposition of theirs, and make up with them upon Terms that are at all reasonable.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated April 15.

Vienna, April 2. Two Days ago an Express arriv'd from Hungary, with the Answer of the Ottoman Porte to the last Letter of Prince Eugene; and 'tis said, it contains among other things, the Consent of the Grand Seignior for sending Plenipotentiaries to the Place of Congress, to enter upon the Negotiations for Peace, upon the preliminary Conditions propos'd by the Imperial Court, That both Sides shall keep what they at present possess. If this be true, there is Reason to believe, that the Turks have been disappointed in the Hopes that had been given them of a powerful Diversion in Italy; and that the Emperor will choose considerably to diminish his Army in Hungary, where he will have, at the opening of the Campaign, 80000 Men of chosen Troops, which the Turkish Ambassadors may be Eye Witnesses of. In the mean time, the Porte continues to make extraordinary Preparations, which in all Probability will end only in endeavouring to obtain the more advantageous Peace. This Answer of the Porte will not fail to hasten the Departure of the Count de Virmond, and the Ministers of Great Britain and Holland. The Marquis du Sol, Minister of the Court of Turin, and another Minister of the same Court, with the Return of a Courier they have sent to Turin, and then 'tis hop'd we may be inform'd of the Success of that Negotiation.

London, April 9.

Yesterday Morning the Secretary of the Earl of Stairs arriv'd at Court, with the Letter which Prince Eugene of Savoy wrote to that Lord the 7th of April, N. 8. to inform him, that the Emperor has fully accepted the propos'd Terms of Accommodation with the Court of Madrid. The Regent sent immediately an Express to Madrid with that News, which made the more Impression, because by the last Letters arriv'd from Spain, his Catholick Majesty testified a Disposition towards an Accommodation.

Westminster Fire-Office.

The Directors give Notice, That a General Meeting of the Members of the said Society will be held at their Office at Tom's Coffee-house in St. Martin's Lane, near Charing-cross, on Monday being Thursday the 10th Instant, by Three in the Afternoon, where all the Subscribers, and Persons insuring in the said Office, are desired to be present. And where all Persons may daily insure their Houses, and other Brick and Timber Buildings, which are situated within the Bills of Mortality and Parts adjacent, by depositing in the common Stock 12 s. for every 100 l. insured 7 Years on Brick Buildings, and double for Timber. At the End of the Insured Term, 10 s. of the 12 s. and the like Proportion for Timber Buildings, will be returned to the Person that paid in the same, or to his Assigns; the other 2 s. being applied to defray Office-Rent, Books, Salaries, and other contingent Charges, necessary in carrying on the Business of the said Society. In this Office all Persons concerned are equal Sharers in Profits arising from the Interest of the Stock, or otherwise, of which a yearly Dividend will be made; that will be another additional Advantage to every Person that insures in this Society.

Sir,

Your Vote and Interest are humbly desired for Sir ROBERT DUNCKLEY, Merchant, Citizen and Haberdasher of London, (who hath had great Losses in Trade both by Sea and Land, and hath a Wife and several Children unprovided for) to be one of the Bridge-Masters of this City, in the Room of Mr. John Pitt, deceased.

Sir,

JEREMIAH MARLOW, Citizen and Goldsmith of London, (your former Petitioner) who has been Forty Years a Shop-keeper in Lombard-street, hath (long since) serv'd all the Offices in his Ward and Parish, and been Thirteen Years of the Common-Council of this City; having a Wife and Children unprovided for, &c. now humbly renews his former Request for the Office of Bridge-Master, vacant by the Death of Mr. Pitt.

AT the Globe and Duke of Marlborough's Head in Fleet-street, is to be seen a bold Grimace, painted, lately brought from Spain, who liv'd 15 Years among wild Creatures in the Mountains, and is supposed to have been taken out of his Cradle, an Infant, by some savage Beast. He performs the following surprising Grimaces, viz. He lolls out his Tongue a Foot long, turns his Eyes in and out at the same time; contracts his Face as small as an Apple; extends his Mouth 6 Inches, and turns it into the Shape of a Bird's Beak, and his Eyes like an Owl; turns his Mouth into the Form of a Hat cock'd up three Ways; licks his Nose with his Tongue like a Cow; turns his Mouth into the Shape of a Spanish Padlock, and also frames it in the Manner of a four square Buckle; rolls one Eye-brow two Inches up, the other two down; changes his Face to such an affrighting Degree, as to appear like a Corpse long buried. Altho' bred wild & long, yet by traveling 18 Years, he can sing wonderfully fine, and accompany his Voice with a thorough Bass on the Lute. Prices are 2 s. 6 d. 1 s. 6 d. or 1 s. the lowest.

Advertisement to the Curious.

This is to give Notice, that the wonderful Anatomical Preparations in Wax-work, lately demonstrated in Surry-street, to the great Satisfaction of both Sexes that saw them, are now every Day to be seen in Row Street, at the two first Green Puffs and Green Doors, on the left Hand, crossing out of Ruffel Street, near Covent-Garden. There are Five Figures of natural Bigness and Colour, and are perfectly done after the Life, besides several Parts separated. With other Rarities. The Price for each Person 5 s.

His Majesty having granted a Patent for the Machine in N^o. 2. in Essex Court in the Temple, one pair of Stairs on the Left hand, tho' the Shares are all taken, some whose Affairs call'd them abroad, have left a few to be dispos'd of, for which the said Office will be open this Day and to Morrow, from 10 to 5 a Clock. Note, that at first Sight all will be satisfied of the Performance and Profit, and no part of the Fund for carrying it on, will be touch'd by the Undertaker, but be call'd in by the Subscribers, it being but 5 l. per Share.

Lost on Monday the 7th Instant, a Pocket Book, with the Owner's Name and where he lives, with a Crown Reward for them that find it; as also some Accounts, and a Bill of 21 l. of no Use to any but the Owner. Whoever brings it to the Maiden-head-Inn in St. Giles's, shall have a Guinea Reward, without asking any manner of Questions.

Lost or mislaid in Exchange-Alley, a Note of M^{rs}. Atwill and Hamond, for 100 l. dated the 8th Instant, and payable to Alexander Bunyan. Whoever has taken up the said Note, and will bring it to M^{rs}. Atwill and Hamond in Exchange-Alley, shall have half a Guinea Reward, and no Questions ask'd, Payment being stop'd.
